EXHIBIT A

PLAINTIFF OFEILA COLOYAN'S PRETRIAL STATEMENT

COMES NOW PLAINTIFF OFELIA COLOYAN (hereinafter referred to as Ms. Coloyan or the Plaintiff) by and through counsel Arthur E. Ross, Esq., Jack Schweigert, Esq., and Rory Soares Toomey, Esq.. and pursuant to the Third Amended Scheduling Order and LR.16.6 submits her pretrial statement.

A) PARTY

This pretrial statement is submitted on behalf of the Plaintiff.

B) JURISDICTION AND VENUE

William Badua (hereinafter referred to as Badua), Jeffery Omai (hereinafter referred to as Omai); and Spencer Anderson (hereinafter referred to as Anderson) Defendants above-named (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Defendants) violated Ms. Coloyan's Fourth Amendment Right to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures as guaranteed to her by the Constitution of the United States of America in violation of 42 U. S. C. 1983 et. seq. This Honorable Court has jurisdiction to grant the relief prayed for under 28 U.S.C. 1331 along with 28 U. S. C. 1343; and because all parties reside in the District of Hawaii venue is properly in the above-entitled Court pursuant to 28 U. S. C. 1391 (b).

The Plaintiff accepts that jurisdiction and venue is in this Court. The Plaintiff is unaware of any challenge to the jurisdiction and venue of this Court brought by any of the Defendants.

C) SUBSTANCE OF ACTION

This action arises as a result of the Defendants attempt to execute an alleged warrant authorizing the arrest of Ms. Coloyan's son, Allan. At the time of that attempt, Allan had moved out of Ms. Coloyan's house and was working on a fishing boat in Alaska.

When the Defendants arrived at her home, Ms. Colyan informed them of Allan's whereabouts. However, the Defendants muscled their way passed her and through the front door of her home.

When Ms. Coloyan asked to see the warrant, Badua responded by pointing to his badge and remarked that his badge gave him all the authority he needed to enter and search her home.

The defenses raised are they had reason to believe Allan Coloyan was residing at the home of Ms. Coloyan and further that Ms. Coloyan consented to their search. As to the information that Defendants relied upon regarding Allan Coloyan's residence, it was stale, and refuted by Ms. Coloyan. As to the Defendants claim Ms. Coloyan consented to searching of her home, this is denied.

D) UNDISPUTED FACTS

It is undisputed that at the time of the incident, Allan Coloyan was not in his mother's home. It is also undisputed that upon Defendants completion of their search of Ms. Coloyan's home, they went to her neighbors and told them that Allan Coloyan was wanted for drug dealing by the United States.

E) DISPUTED FACTUAL ISSUES

The disputed facts are:

1. Whether Allan Coloyan was a resident of his mother's home.
2. Whether Ms. Coloyan consented to the search of her home by Defendants.
3. Whether Ms. Coloyan suffered damages from the search of her home by Defendants.
4. Whether Officer Badua represented that his badge was enough authority to search Ms. Coloyan's home.

F) RELIEF PRAYED

Ms. Coloyan is seeking general damages for her pain and suffering, stress, anxieties, feelings of shame, headaches, worsened her hypertension, and her loss of work.

Ms. Coloyan is also seeking punitive damages for the actions of the Defendants, particularly Badua's actions, were intentional and malicious. Based upon the age of the information they had about the whereabouts of Allan Coloyan, they knew, or they should have known, that they had no reasonable opportunity of finding their quarry in Ms. Coloyan's home, and therefore, the alleged warrant for the arrest of Allan Colyan did not authorize their entry into Ms. Coloyan's home.

After leaving Ms. Coloyan's residence, the Defendants had no reason to believe that Allan Coloyan was in the neighborhood, yet they went around to Ms. Coloyan's neighbors to make sure they knew that Allan Coloyan was a BAD PERSON.

G) POINTS OF LAW

The legal points that control this case are:

1. The police may not enter a dwelling to make an arrest without a warrant authorizing the arrest. Payton v. New York, 445 U. S. 573, 603, 100 S. Ct. 1371, 1388, 63 L. Ed. 2d 639 (1980).
2. Even with an arrest warrant, the police may not enter a dwelling to make an arrest unless they have reasonable information that the person to be arrested resides in the dwelling and will be in the dwelling at the time the arrest is to be made. id. and Perez v. Simmons, 884 F. 2d 1136 (9th Cir. 1989).

3. Reasonable information means that police officers, making such an arrest, must have probable cause to believe that the person to be arrested resides in the dwelling and will be in the dwelling at the time that the arrest is to be made. United States v. Gorman, 314 F. 3d 1105, 1110-1115 (9th Cir. 2002).
4. A subject of a search does not consent to that search when their consent is prompted by a show of official authority. United States v. Edmondson, 791 F. 2d 1512 (11th Cir. 1986).
5. Ms. Colyan is entitled to damages that will compensate her for the outrage, mental suffering, shame, humiliation, and ridicule that she suffered Section 11.4 9th Circuit Manual of Modern Jury Instruction (1997) (modified)
6. Because the Defendants' conduct was malicious, or in reckless disregard of her rights, Ms. Coloyan is entitled to an award of punitive damages. Section 7.5 9th Circuit Manual of Modern Jury Instruction (1997) (modified)

H) PREVIOUS MOTIONS

The previous motions that were made in this case and their disposition are as follows:

1. An ex parte motion permitting the Plaintiff to file a third amended complaint and it was granted.
